

Message from the Head of the Department of Hadith and Its Sciences

In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

All praise is due to Allah, and may the peace and blessings be upon the Messenger of Allah, his family, companions, and those who follow him.

Department of Hadith and Its Sciences at the University of Fallujah is one of the distinguished academic departments that aims to provide a pioneering educational and research environment dedicated to the study, preservation, and dissemination of the Prophetic Hadith and its sciences. This contributes significantly to enhancing our understanding and preservation of the Prophetic heritage.

Our department was established in the academic year ٢٠١٧-٢٠١٨ in response to the increasing need for a specialized field focused on the study of Hadith and its sciences, opening new horizons for students of Islamic studies. The department offers undergraduate and master's programs, reflecting our commitment to providing comprehensive and precise education in this vital field.

Our goal is to graduate students with deep knowledge of Hadith sciences, capable of analyzing, interpreting, and critically evaluating Hadith narratives. We are dedicated to promoting critical thinking, academic excellence, and ethical leadership among our students, qualifying them to make effective contributions to educational and missionary activities within and beyond the community.

The department boasts a distinguished faculty with extensive expertise in Hadith sciences, and we continuously strive to enhance their skills and provide a stimulating and supportive educational environment. Additionally, we are committed to advancing scientific research by supporting studies and research in Hadith sciences, organizing scientific conferences and seminars that enrich academic dialogue and foster research collaboration.

The Department of Hadith and Its Sciences is also dedicated to serving the community by offering programs and workshops aimed at enhancing the understanding and application of Prophetic Hadith in daily life. We seek to build partnerships with academic and research institutions locally and internationally to exchange knowledge and promote scholarly dialogue.

In conclusion, I invite all students and researchers to join the Department of Hadith and Its Sciences and contribute with us to achieving our vision of becoming an internationally recognized center of excellence in the study and dissemination of the Prophetic Hadith and its sciences.
